Only Baseball ever used in the National League Official Again for 1956!

Official Since the League Began

SINCE 1876, when the league began, Spalding has been setting records in quality and craftsmanship, producing an Official National League baseball that has no peer, and which offers assurance of dependability and promises uniform, superior performance. It's official for all National League games and All Star and World Series games too.

This great ball is built around the famous Cushioned Cork Centre . . . retains its shape, keeps its uniform size. Highest quality selected wool yarn winding. Best quality selected alum tanned horsehide leather cover, sewed with double red stitching. In every respect this famous ball is "Official" and uniformly standard in construction and performance. Individually boxed and sealed.
