1926-27 Babe Ruth D&M G41T Glove

This is the rare tan variation of the G41. Only produced for two years, this model is extremely rare. I have put over a dozen G41's on my hands over the years and this one is by far the nicest feeling glove I might have ever put on my hand. The lining is perfect, supple and very thick leather. Babe is light but Ruth is bold. The model # is bold as well. From the late Ted Mohr collection – his pride and joy. It's just about as good as it gets……...$2,500

1890’s-10's Full Collar Wool Baseball Jersey

"Jose Villa." Could have Cuban, Puerto Rican or Dominican heritage, as it was found at an estate sale in Florida. Has a rare chest pocket. All 4 original mother of pearl buttons intact, and letters are in nice shape. has some moth holes throughout, and some repaired stitching near the armpits, but overall in great condition for its age. No maker tag remains, although it did at one time - stitches that outline the tag still remain……..$525
